The Accession Declaration. London, June 26 .- Earl Grey's Bill to abolish the King's Accession Declaration, on the ground that it is superfluous, has been rejected by the House of Lords by 109 votes to 62. The Archbishop of Canterbury admitted that the declaration was needlessly offensive, but some guarantee from the Sover-

[The bill of 1901 was read the third time in the House of Lords. Its object was to remove expressions in the declaration offensive to Roman Catholics, but the debate that took place upon the measure showed that it did not meet with the wishes of either party, and it was dropped.]

Gunner Clarke, his companion, who was also standing at the muzzle of the gun in order to rum the charge home, sustained terrible injuries. His right arm was blown off, and the muscles of the left arm shattered. His hands too, were shat tered and, it is believed, were blown clean into the sea. At any rate they could not be found. GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the reception at the French Consulate on Tuesday (says the N.-C. Daily News of the 17th inst.) the duty of felicitating the Consul-General on the national anniversary fell, in the absence through illness of Mr Chapsal, to Mr Brodie Clarke, Vice-President of the French Municipal Council, and one of the oldest residents in the Concession. As an Englishman Mr Brodie Clarke took occasion to refer to · that wise vigilance of the Consuls of France, under which other nationals and Chinese, equally with the French, had found within the Settlement a generous independence, which had been one of the causes of their affairs. In the course of his roply, speaking of King senting Birkmyre Brothers and J. Thomas Edward's recent visit to Paris, to renew old associations. M. Ratord made graceful mention of his Majesty's 'tact, courtesy and affability, which have always made him the see the competitors coming in at the Golf first gentleman of the world.' The Consul-General went on to say : 'Our President, cints, but J. Thomas & Co. made a fine has now gone to carry to London the following was the order of arrival in Cal- understanding, and that it is better to pass the sponge over past misconceptions.'

The various phases of the 'confidence trick ' as practised at home are now wel known except to the greenest of country cousins (says the N.-C. Daily News), but that John Chinaman is not one whit behind the times in that walk of life and can pick out the innocent dupe with ease is illustrated by the following incident, which occurred recently :- An assistant was sent with $50 in notes to exchange for silver at money-changing shop. He received his roll of dollars, wrapped up in the usual manner in brown paper. Shortly after leaving the exchange shop he was accosted by one of the loafer class, who anxiously enquired if he had received the correct amount. The dupe said that he was satisfied about his change, but the experi grabbed the roll, pretended to examine it. and then handed back to the victim a similar roll. On returning to his employer's shop and opening the roll, it was Britain's Gold Coinage. found that the supposed roll of dollars consisted of lead checks.—This is not the British coinage has been brought to notice only incident of a like nature that has by Dr J. We are met on a plot ground adjoining our hospital-the Nethersole-to lay the foundation stone of another to be called the Alice Memorial Maternity—a name that the new institution closely hospital the Alice Hospital in the Hollywood Road To many of those present to-day, these facts are suggestive and instructive. They are facts that speak of well-sustained medical work among the poor of the colony, of continuity of growth and expansion in the direction of benevolent healing. And the interest that some take in this ceremony will perchance be quickened and enhanced if I remind them from what bearing the following inscription:small beginnings these hospitals have reached their present usefulness as charitable institutions. Nearly twenty-five years ago, in 1879, on the old Tai Ping Shan area immediately below us, and not more than a stone's throw from where we are standing, I saw the rise of a movement that has given | nor of Hongkong. us the Alice Memorial Hospital, the Nethersole Hospital, and is now to give us the Alice Memorial Maternity Hospital. Dr William Young, a practioner in this city, was wont to come early in the morning to a Christian Preaching Hall in Tai Ping Shan, where he dispensed E. Brown, D. Clark, C. Ewens, R. Fuhrmedicines to poor people who gathered to him from that and from other parts of what was then China town. I recall the circumstances guite readily, for I had newly arrived in the colony and Dr. Young's medical effort on Tai Ping Shan was impressed. on me clearly and strongly. My friend has W. The work has not failed to colist much practical sympathy on the part of Chinese and non-Chinese residents. Among the former is one whom I feel bound to mention, even at the risk of incurring his displeasure-the Hon. Dr Ho Kai. For sixteen years the Paul Krieg, M.D., Alexander Rennie Alice Memorial Hospital has stood for the M.B., C.M., Robert Gibson, M.B, Ch.B. alleviation of suffering and as un object lesson to the Chinese, and I say that the | D.D.S. man who founds such an institution deserves well of his countrymen and of the community. We call the now building the Alice Memorial Maternity Hospital because we wish the name to indicate the i continuity of our work and further to mark the circumstance that Dr Ho Kaihas had much to do in starting this new institution. There is another name which C.M. it is fitting to recall, and as its owner is not present, I have no hesitation in doing so. The name 'Nethersola' was given to what many call the new Alice Hospital by its founder, Mr H. W. Davis, who had left the Colony before the building was erected. Tile Singapore Free Press of the 18th inst. says :- Correspondence regarding the design and size of the Straits Settlements dollar was laid on the table of the Council announcing the decision of the Legislative Council and the general arrangements necessary with the Treasury and the Mint. The official description of the new coin design is :--

The said dollar shall have for the obverse impression Our Effigy consisting of head and bust, wearing the Imperial Crown and the Robe of State, with the Collar of the Garter and the Badge of the Bath, and looking to the Right, with the legend 'Edward' VII King and Emperor;' and for the reverse impression a scroll, the upper and lower quarters of which shall contain the Chinese characters for 'One Dollar' while the corresponding Malay characters are contained in the quarters to the right and left. The words 'Straits Settlements' shall be inscribed above, and the words 'One Dollar' and the date below the scroll.

The Governor recommended that should be one-sixteenth smaller diameter Standard or King's head on obverse and lion rampant on reverse, with the words "Straits dollar" and date, all in high relief. The Secretary of State wanted to know why the smaller coin was suggested and the
